THANKS TO OSCAR, JILL AND STEVE TUBBS' FAITH
 IN SELF-EMPLOYMENT HAS BEEN RESTORED

In the franchising industry there's always a business opportunity waiting for you. So when Jill and Steve Tubbs, believing they were unemployable, came to a grinding halt, OSCAR gave them new hope.

Says Steve: "After 20 years of running a successful petrol station and convenience store and employing a staff of 25, we chose to sell after getting tired of the business. We needed to work and after so many years of being self-employed it became difficult to establish a new way of life.

"I must have applied for at least 50 jobs and received as many rejections. Morale was low and it seemed our best option was to start again with our own business, but with a business that would give us a head start. The internet was a good source of information and clearly franchising offered a proven, successful system."

ENJOY

Pet loving Jill and Steve wanted to find a business they could enjoy working in to re-energise their desire to make a fresh start.

"Our appetite for OSCAR became very clear when our own dogs were introduced to OSCAR food - the effects were dramatic and our decision was made," explains Steve.

"Starting with a greenfield area, which needed an introduction to the OSCAR service that we were proud to promote, gave us a taste for a home delivery business. Then out of the blue a resale area became available, so we took that on too."

SALES

Steve adds: "Adding to our now very large area, we also increased our family of pets. With two Golden Retrievers and a chocolate Labrador, who is expecting her first litter of puppies, our sales of pet food look likely to increase.

"With belief in the product and a passion for what we can offer our customers, who are like-minded people with fantastic dogs, our faith in self-employment has been restored. We love our job, we work hard and it rewards us in many, many ways." MM
