ALLISON WRIGHT SWAPPED THE BUILDING TRADE FOR AN OSCAR PET FOODS FRANCHISE

Looking for a change of career, Allison Wright decided to purchase Oscar Pet Foods Tyne and Wear as a franchise resale. Having spent 27 years working for her family's business in the building trade, pets had an instant appeal.

"I am thrilled with my OSCAR franchise and although I am only halfway through my first year I am very positive about the future," says Allison.

PERSONAL

"From the outset, it was important that I met every customer so that I could maintain that long-term personal relationship, ensuring I understood their requirements and needs as pet owners.

"With new customers, I can see they are delighted with the quality of the food and are already reporting changes in the health and condition of their pets. Recently I was able to resolve a serious skin allergy and also help another dog ease its fitting problem by changing the animals diet."

Of the franchisor, Allison says: "In the early stages of my development the Oscar staff were a fantastic support and there is always someone to help with every aspect of the business.

"As I have an exclusive territory, I am able to work closely with my neighbouring franchisees, establishing strong lines of support where we can enjoy shared opportunities, such as shows and other events in our areas.

"I have been used to working in a family business and appreciate you have to be disciplined to succeed. Work hard and you will get back what you put in. To have a business that gives you so many rewards by improving and maintaining the life of a pet beats the building trade for me."

COMPLETE

Oscar franchisees offer a complete pet care service that includes ongoing expert advice, health care products and accessories.

The franchise provides many rewards, including repeat business and an opportunity to meet the UK's 13 million pet owners - who just love their animals. MM
