

Exciting prospects

ENJOY THE FREEDOM OF RUNNING YOUR OWN BUSINESS WITH THE HELP OF OSCAR, THE PET FOOD HOME DELIVERY SPECIALIST

The satisfaction of a good day's work comes from knowing you have made a customer happy. Anyone investing in an OSCAR pet food home delivery business will see the reward, time and time again, when being able to supply the OSCAR complete pet care service direct to pet owners.

Individuals like David Graham, who spent 33 years working in the steel industry. "Investigating my options, I soon discovered that franchising provided a very strong message of guidance and support - inspiring my confidence to go one step further," he explains.

CARE

"OSCAR came to me through the media, followed by a visit to a franchise show, and the rest fell into place. Animals were an instant attraction because, as a pet owner, I already knew that pet lovers all have the same common denominator. Walking my dogs Bess and Molly, and my new puppy Lia, always encourages conversation with like-minded people, and for that reason I could see the potential of an OSCAR business - because we all care.

"You will be trained and supported throughout every stage of your business development"

Graham adds: "I can't fault the journey that I have taken to set up my own business. The flexibility of working from home, in an area that I know so well, offers exciting prospects. Joining OSCAR reassures me that I will be a successful franchisee with a good standard of living, which means that there will be time for hobbies and a happy, positive future."

Choosing an OSCAR franchise is one way of knowing you can select a level of business that suits your ideals and capabilities - a business that is tailored to your requirements. You will be trained and supported throughout every stage of your business development, while being offered incentives that will not raise the cost of your investment. MM
