ANIMAL LOVER DAVID GRAHAM SAW THE POTENTIAL OF AN OSCAR PET FOOD HOME DELIVERY BUSINESS AND CASHED IN

The pleasure of a good day's work is knowing you have made a customer happy - especially when that customer is a life that really needs you.

Anyone taking on an OSCAR pet food home delivery business opportunity will see the reward time and time again when being able to supply the OSCAR complete pet care service direct to pet owners.

RECONSIDER

David Graham spent 33 years of his working career in the steel industry, which was constantly changing

"if you want the freedom and security of running your own business, your change for the better should be with OSCAR."

- changing enough to convince him it was time to move on.

He explains: "I had reached the end of the road in a job I had started from leaving school. There were changes in responsibilities throughout that time, but circumstances within the company encouraged me to reconsider my future. I'd always dreamt of running my own business, but a lack of knowledge in self-employment restricted my decision.

"Investigating my options, I soon discovered that franchising provided a very strong message of guidance and support - inspiring my confidence to go one step further. OSCAR came to me through the media, followed by a visit to a franchise show, and the rest fell into place.

"Animals were an instant attraction because, as a pet owner, I already knew that pet lovers have the same common denominator. Walking my dogs, Bess, Molly and Lia, always encourages conversation with like-minded people, and for that reason I could see the potential of an OSCAR business - because we all care."

EXPERIENCE

OSCAR has, over the years, gained the experience and confidence to recognise the importance of making career changing decisions. So if you want the freedom and security of running your own business, your change for the better should be with OSCAR. MM
