OSCAR much more than a franchise®

AN IDEAL OPPORTUNITY

Michael Cameron and OSCAR were destined to meet – eventually. Within a year of selling his printing company in Paisley, Michael became anxious to get back to work only to find OSCAR just around the corner.

"Having served 30 years as a Warrant Officer in the Royal Navy retirement from the service took me to Helensburgh where I became a technical author for the MOD and then on to my own franchised printing business which, after working long hours everyday, was starting to take its toll. "I was lucky enough to sell my business and even luckier to discover OSCAR, especially when I soon realised that I still needed to have a goal. It didn't take long for me to find OSCAR in fact it was perfect timing – a business that combined flexibility and the chance for me to enjoy the great outdoors was my ideal opportunity.

"Buying a local OSCAR business gave me a good grounding for getting started but before making any final decisions I researched the company and its procedures thoroughly. A business that is very new to me but not to my area is something that I will take great pleasure in expanding making sure that no pet will miss out on the benefits of the products and service that my own three dogs are already tucking in to!"
