OPPORTUNITY ON WHEELS

OSCAR Pet Foods customer Rachel Knight is now one of its franchisees

Rachel Knight says she found the perfect business opportunity when she discovered OSCAR. “My initial internet search was for animal related employment when I came across OSCAR as a self-employment opportunity,” she explains.

“I’d been feeding OSCAR food - which came via direct home delivery - to my dogs for at least eight years.”

REDUNDANCY

After spending 25 years as a commercial financial adviser to farming clients, Rachel took voluntary redundancy.

“I joined a farm insurer as an ‘on farm insurance agent’, offering advice on the many aspects of insurance,” she says. “After three stressful years of working unsociable hours and travelling around the country, I made my decision to move on.

“My research introduced me to franchising. Complete with systems, products and support in place, the flexibility and freedom to run a business as you wish could not be better.”

Of the OSCAR franchise, Rachel says: “Speaking to other franchisees gave me a positive introduction to the finer details of the business and spending a day out in the field enabled me to assess the business carefully.

“I’m far less stressed and I have time for myself, my husband and my two dogs, while enjoying new friendships with my customers.

“My recommendation to anyone looking at a new business is to take your time and tick all the boxes to ensure it’s right for you and your family.”
